City Council Priority Setting/Work Plan Development

Every year the Council meets in a workshop to establish Priorities for the coming Fiscal Year. This year the Council is scheduled meet on Wednesday March 18th. Last year, in March, the Council met and adopted the Priorities for 2014/2015, which are attached near the end of this Update.

Belmont's Vision Statement drives the City's Goals/Priorities, which are in turn implemented as part of Department Work Plans in the City's Budget process. Keeping that in mind, and building on last year's Priority Setting Process, which linked the Vision Statement's value drivers the Council adopted 4 Top Priority Categories, as follows:

1. Economic Development, Downtown Revitalization and Advance Planning
2. Ralston Corridor Study and Improvements
3. Capital Financing Plan for Infrastructure
4. Park and Recreation Improvements (Facilities and Parks)

While most of the Priorities are multi-year there has been significant progress during this last period on the following:

- Ralston Ave. Corridor Study and Improvements
- Davey Glen Park Design and Development
- Capital Financing Plan for Infrastructure
- 2035 General Plan Update
- General Plan Update: Belmont "Villages" Zoning
- Strategy for the Future of Barrett Community Center Property
- Use of Unspent RDA Bond Proceeds
- Update City's Web Presence/Public Information

Once the Council has completed the Priority Setting review, staff will utilize the Priorities during the Budget Process in developing the Budget document for next fiscal year. During the Budget Process the departments will identify the projects/initiatives that they will be able to accomplish, given the capacity of staff, and any potential additional needs will be identified.

The following is an example of how the Priorities inform the Budget Process:

Still Time to Provide Feedback on Local Services and Infrastructure.

WHAT ARE YOUR PRIORITIES FOR LOCAL SERVICES?

MAINTAIN LOCAL SERVICES

The City is working to maintain local services as Sacramento continues to find new ways to take our local funds. Over the last 20 years, the State has taken $15.5 million from the City of Belmont.

This has left us with repairs and improvements for our roads, storm drains, parks and more that Belmont cannot address.

Over the coming months, we will be engaging residents in a Community Conversation on your perspectives regarding local service needs. The most important input into this process comes from YOU! Please help us by clicking the link to take our Community Survey today.

Water Dog Lake Spillway Gate Closure

The Public Works Maintenance Staff will close the gates at water dog lake spillway on April 1st. The Department of Water Resources Division of Dams requires the spillway gates to remain in the fully open position from November 1st through April 1st. Water releases allowed the rain water to be released in a measured way due to rain events, and were necessary during the rainy season to reduce possible flooding from the lake.

City-Wide Sanitary Sewer Root Foaming Maintenance Slated for Thursday April 2nd

In an ongoing effort to conduct preventative maintenance on the City's sanitary sewer mains, 50,000 feet of sewer main throughout the city will be treated with root foam starting Thursday, April 2nd. Root control is an important element of an effective overall strategy to maintain sewer systems. Dukes Root Foaming (City's contractor) will be conducting the root foaming and is anticipated to be complete within three weeks.

Dukes Root Control staff will place door hangers the week prior to work, and notification will be posted to Nextdoor.com to inform residents of upcoming treatment. Dukes Root Foaming will notify residents if they need access to an easement on their property. If residents have any questions, they may contact the Public Works Department at (650) 595-7425.

Storm Division

- Performed weekly inspection of Water Dog Lake roadway, dam, v-ditch, and dock
- Inspected and cleaned Ralston Storm Pump Station
- Swept 111 miles of curb resulting in the acquisition of 6.87 tons of debris
- Gathered the peizometer readings at Water Dog Lake dam. The peizometers measure water level at various spots along the dam proper
- Inspected 1,603 feet of Storm line through the use of our Closed Circuit Television Van (CCTV) unit
- Removed 5 yards of built up sediment from the bottom of the Harbor Pump Station wet well
- In addition to the normal inspection and cleaning of Harbor Pump Station we performed a more comprehensive maintenance program. As a result of easier access due to our new hinged lids (the old ones were of the non-hinged concrete variety) we were able to pull and clean the 2 pumps located at this station. This is the first opportunity for us to do so in the 17 year history of this station. Additionally, we disassembled the check valves to ascertain whether or not debris had become lodged in them. After, we reassembled the valves, cleaned the bolts, and ensured that they returned to proper working order (Pictured Below)

Properly Disposed Cigarette Butts Remain out of Storm Drains

Thanks to a new cigarette receptacle installed at 707 Old County Road, this shovel of cigarette butts will never make their way to the storm drain. With the assistance of Public Works, McLellan Estate Company took steps in reducing cigarette butt litter around their property by installing a receptacle in a designated location outside of their multi-unit complex.

Public Works staff collected the contained butts from the receptacle this week as part of a cigarette litter pollution prevention assessment. The newly installed receptacle will help reduce cigarette butt litter, and protect our water-ways from toxins that are found in filters.

Cigarette butts are the most commonly found item during Belmont creek cleanups. They are made of synthetic plastic and contain toxic chemicals that are released into storm water, which then ends up in storm drains, creeks, and ultimately the Bay. In an effort to reduce this littered item they have recently installed a cigarette receptacle in a designated smoking area adjacent to their property for residents. This receptacle will allow residents to properly dispose of cigarette butts properly and responsibly, keeping them out of storm drains and reduce any unsightly cigarette butt litter.

Cigarette butts are litter too. Be a part of the cigarette butt litter prevention brigade and dispose of your butts responsibly.

Field Maintenance Tools

Parks staff uses a variety of tools to maintain parks facilities. One of those tools is a John Deere tractor. The tractor is a versatile piece of equipment that has multiple attachments to achieve different goals. This week a broadcast spreader was attached to the tractor to spread calcium carbonate over the Island Park and Nesbit sports fields. Calcium carbonate helps turfgrass resist pathogens and other stress factors such as drought and close mowing. In another application utilizing the tractor, an aerovator is used to break up the hard red rock on a baseball infield. This multi-step process includes breaking up the red rock, then grading and smoothing it out for safe play. The versatility of the tractor and its multiple attachments help maximize efficiency and keep the sports fields safe and usable.

San Mateo County Transit District Names Jim Hartnett As New Transit Chief; Will Lead SamTrans, Caltrain and the San Mateo County Transportation Authority

Jim Hartnett, veteran transportation and community leader, was unanimously appointed today to head the San Mateo County Transit District, an independent and consolidated public agency that includes the SamTrans bus and paratransit system, the Caltrain Peninsula commuter rail service and the San Mateo County Transportation Authority, which funds transit and transportation programs.

Hartnett will be the General Manager and Chief Executive Officer of the District, a job that carries with it the titles of General Manager/CEO of SamTrans, Executive Director of Caltrain and Executive Director of the Transportation Authority.

He starts his new job on March 30.

Hartnett, a Redwood City resident, served more than a decade on both the District and the Caltrain boards of directors and has served both boards as chair. He was appointed four years ago to the California High Speed Rail Authority Board of Directors, where he served most recently as vice chair. He has resigned from that board. He served 15 years on the Redwood City City Council, including terms as mayor and vice mayor.

He replaces Michael J. Scanlon, who is retiring after a distinguished career in the transit industry, which includes running the District for more than 15 years.

"The selection committee, reflecting the stakeholders of San Mateo, Santa Clara, and San Francisco counties, agreed: Jim has the skills and experience we need right now for this job," said Jeff Gee, who chaired the SamTrans search committee that unanimously recommended Hartnett to the full SamTrans board.

"This is personal for me," said Hartnett. "I grew up on the Peninsula. I rode the bus before there was a SamTrans. I rode the train before there was a Caltrain. I believe in what transit can do to make a better life for all of us and to preserve those things we so deeply value and treasure about living and working here. I understand the important role our bus and train systems play in maintaining our quality of life and sustaining the economic vitality of our region."

Added Hartnett: "These three agencies are doing outstanding work and their combined talents comprise a team of well-respected employees who are working together to achieve the region's transportation vision. I'm privileged to have the opportunity to serve at this extremely important time and I appreciate the confidence and trust that has been placed in me."

The District serves three counties, 35 cities and millions of residents and commuters. Combined, the three agencies have budgets of more than $500 million, capital projects well in excess of $1.7 billion and engage more than 1,500 full-time, part-time and contracted employees.

Added Gee: "This is an extraordinarily complex job. Leading this multi-agency organization requires more than knowledge about transit and transportation, it requires an individual who understands how to strengthen and maintain the relationships and partnerships essential for success."

"Jim has the highest level of understanding of these three agencies and the communities they serve, along with local, regional, national, and international transit experience. He is a proven Bay Area leader who knows how to collaborate and build consensus," Gee said.

SamTrans Board Chair Shirley Harris, also a member of the search committee, said, "We were fortunate to have several well-qualified candidates. But Jim had the strongest knowledge of SamTrans and its multi-agency responsibilities as evidenced by having served as chair of the Board of Directors of SamTrans and Caltrain JPB, and Vice Chair of the California High Speed Rail Authority. Jim possesses strong leadership skills, a passion to serve the community, a keen understanding of public policy and familiarity with stakeholders and the political landscape of the region."

Hartnett's appointment is the result of a nationwide recruitment that took more than six months and included consideration of more than 200 applicants.

The search committee included:

- Redwood City Mayor Jeff Gee, chair of the search effort, who serves on both the SamTrans and Caltrain boards;
- Shirley Harris, the current SamTrans board chair;
- San Mateo County Supervisor Adrienne Tissier, who serves on both the SamTrans and Caltrain boards;
- South San Francisco City Councilwoman Karyl Matsumoto, who serves on both the SamTrans and TA boards;
- San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency Board of Directors Chairman Tom Nolan, member of the Caltrain board representing San Francisco;
- San Jose City Councilman Ash Kalra, member of the Caltrain board representing Santa Clara County;
- Also serving as ex officio, non-voting members were SFMTA General Manager Ed Reiskin and Santa Clara Valley Transportation Authority General Manager Nuria Fernandez.

The committee unanimously recommended Hartnett to the District board.
